President - Margaret M. Nielsen 1960 - 1961 - 1962 Dear

As the Old Year rings out at midnight on December 31, 1960, our old WMF, too, will die. In its place the First Lutheran Church Women (FLCW) will come into being. All over the North American continent, womentwill be joining in closer fellowship in the ALCW, to the praise and clory of our Lord Jesus Christ. We are asked to give our SINCERE COOPERATION to make our FLCW a vitel part of our new American Lutheran Church.

It has been suggested by the ALCW that we church women try to meet in smaller groups than before, for the purpose of more efficient Bible study. These sroups, or circles, will meet at an hour most convenient for YOU. So won't you please fill out the enclosed card, telling us what hour is best for you. Or do you wish to meet at the same hour but on an alternate day from the one you now meet in your present guild? Let us know!! We will then let you know the others who have chosen to meet at the same hour or day as you. But remember, we can't include you in the circle of your choice unless you tell us what it is. So please return the card by December 1.

We thank you for your prayerful consideration and cooperation. We look forward eagerly to joining in this new work year with you.

Yours in Christ, The Executive Board

Margaret Wielsen, President

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

During these days which we are spending on the beautiful campus of Pacific Lutheran University, let us offer prayers of thanks for past blessings, raise our voices in songs of praise for His abundant mercies, recount His wondrous deeds as we fellowship together. During our con-

Visitations have been a special joy:

—It has been possible for me to visit several of the Conferences as they met in convention. From a beginning of eight Conferences, we have grown to eleven, with Mid-Columbia dividing (forming the Blue Mountain Conference); the Inland Empire dividing (forming North Central-Spokane Conferences): and the addition of Palouse (Idaho-Washington) Conference.

—this year, because of the expenses for our District Convention, it was the decision of the Board that Board members, living closer to the place of convention, would be official District visitors to extend the invitation to attend the District Convention.

-the highlight of the visitations was my trip to Ketehikan, Alaska last September to attend their first Conference convention. Expenses for the trip were paid from the Interim Fund. As I learned of the sacrifice it took for the women in Alaska to attend a Conference convention, I couldn't help but think of the many women who live close to a convention, but do not attend!

We welcome

- the new Home Mission congregations which have been, or are being formed in our District. We offer the assistance of Conference and or District officers to aid in whatever way they can

-we welcome the Pastors and their families who have moved into our

District

There are also concerns:

 there are still many women who are not participating in the Bible Study Circles. Let us continue to invite and encourage them to study with us.

—that the Cause-of-the-Month may not receive enough attention in the auxiliaries which do not meet each month. We need to KNOW if we are to DO. Some are finding that the Circle must shorten its Bible Study and discussion if it is to have time for the Cause-of-the-Month presentation and necessary business. Are you, finding this true?

—that the Homes in our District may be in want for special need (rehabilitation supplies, crafts, Bibles, etc.) if we do not have a concern for them on our heart and in our budgets. Would you be willing to help in this matter? The Stewardship Secretary for the District will always knaw of these special needs, since she will serve as the contact person between the District and the Homes.

And certainly there are many "Thank You's" to be said:

to all of you for the high privilege that has been mine to serve as

- -to my co-workers the members of the District Board, for their friendship, fellowship, prayers, loyalty and willingness to assume responsibility for assigned tasks. A "Thank you" cannot possibly convey my gratitude to each one of you; but God knows what a blessing you have each been to me. Our meetings will all be treasured memories.
- --to my pastor, Arnold F. Anderson, and his wife, Caroline, who have encouraged me and helped me in many ways;
- to the congregation of Portsmouth Trinity for giving me time away

-to the many parsonages and homes where I was welcomed and given such generous hospitality;

and assistance, their love and encouragement, I could not have served.

-but most of all to God for His love and blessangs. Without Him, I could have done nothing. Each day His strength was given for the needs of the day. He was faithful in answering prayers for guidance and help. The joy of His Presence encouraged me and gave me great joy in serving Him in this way. I pray that He will fugiry me for anything that I have done that might have been harmful or in error, for I am mindful of my many shortcomines. But may I also remain you that if you are asked to assume a position of leadership, you can do so confident in the promise that "He who calls you is faithful." (I Thess. 5:24)

"And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and may be pure and blemeless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruits of righteomeness which come through Jesus Christ, to the glory and masses of Gad". Philipmians 19-11.

His joyous service.

REPORT OF THE EDUCATION SECRETARY

Greettings in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ — the Laght of the World. In our 1962 study on "Jesus, the Light of the World", may we learn to know Christ personally as the Light of our life. It has been a real joy to learn that many experienced a real blessing in our 1961 study on prayer. To many women it meant a new freedom in praying.

As education secretaries we have a big task before us. Through the Bible study we aim to inspire in the individual member a deeper consecration to our Savior; through the Cause of the Month we aim to present the program of the church of Jesus Christ and particularly of the American Landon Clauch The for each month. Scope brings us the Cause of the Month as well as much inspiration and other information. Are the women subscribing to the Scope?

From reports received, the Conference workshops were well attended and helpful. Everyone learned to know "KD". If you have not met he ask your local secretary to introduce her. A thank you to the conference are the conference and the conference are the conference.

Personally, I think the most important work is that of the local educations secretary. I wish to express my appreciation to all for what they have done. Their's is not an easy task. It takes patience, perseverance and ingenuity to present a well planned program. It is gratifying to learn that more and more local ALCW's are using the Bible study. A special thanks to all local education secretaries.

What is the future of the ALCW? It is what we the members will ranke it. We may, by faithful study of the Bibl; and by letting the Höly Spirit work in us, become real power stations, through which God can win the world for Christ.

I wish to thank everyone for their patience, loyal support and cooperation. We have become united in our service in the Kingdom of God. May we continue to "study to show ourselves approved unto God, a worknan that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth." 2 Tim. 2:15 (KJ version).

REPORT OF THE STEWARDSHIP SECRETARY

Dear Friends in the Master's Service:

"As each one has received a gift, employ it for one another as good stewards of God's grace . . . that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ." I Poter 4:10-11

As I now complete my term of office, I would like to express my thanks and appreciation to all our Conference and Local Stewardship Secretaries, pastors, and all women for their many prayers and support for our distitct and world activities.

We are so grateful to Almighty God for His guidance and may each one of us spend more time in prayer than ever before; this being one of the the locals throughout our district. One of the important activities have been winning souls for Christ. Women are taking a more active part and seeing that it is not only the pastor's duty but also theirs. At no time in life before have women needed Christ more than today.

Reports show that the American Lutheran Church Women have stepped in with their Christian love in a real personal way, in such ways as visiting the sick and needy, shut-ins and scemingly forgotten people, in a baby sitting service so that mother may attend a service, teach or serve on a

Let us not forget to give prayerful consideration to our district responsibilities. Here we have a challenge in such places as the Parkland Children's Home, the L. C. Foss and Josephine Sunset Homes, Seamer's Mission, L.B.I. and P.L.U. They need all the help we can give them in a financial way and some also in service projects.

Reports show that loving hands are busy making and supplying hospita gowns, lap robes, bed pads, boys clothes, and gifts. Many locals are put ining on excellent programs for the pleasure of guests in our homes Many thanks to the active auxiliaries of the homes for the well established ones at the Foss and Parkland Children's Home and our newest auxiliaries at the Josephine Sunset Home. May God continue to bless and lead you all into a greater service to help our guests live a happier, more vibran and fuller life.

While we are serving the Lord in hundreds of ways, we should always have a spirit of gratitude. Among the characteristics of a maturing Christian is that of a thankful heart. Our personal, individual "treasure chest" is an ideal place to meet God when our hearts are overflowing with thankfulness.

Let us always remember, "we can do all things through Christ whistrengthens us.

FINAL CONVENTION

Reports from the First Triennial Convention

THURSDAY EVENING

Vesper Service

Prof. W. A. Poovey, in interpreting the convention theme "Jesus Christ the Same," warned that Jesus Christ is not just an Apostle from the past. He is not the patron saint of "stand-patism." He was a revolutionist. He was a man bent on turning things upside down. He was constantly changing lives. He had 1000 moods and 1000 approaches. He always acted to fit the circumstances. Jesus Christ is the same today adaptable to today's problems, and adequate to meet them He had no intention of doing all the work in the Kingdom for us. He turned it over to the disciples. He has not changed at this point either. It is Jesus Christ the same who has called us to work today. We must respond in the faith that he has not changed, he is still adequate and with the task he gives the grace to do it.

The Rev Arland Fiske Bethany Lutheran, St. Louis chanted the http://dx.diservices.

The premier showing of the new World Missions Film. The Changing Face of India." gave a dramatic portrayal of the political, social, economic, and religious changes that are reshaping ways and lives in India. This half-hour color sound motion picture may be rented from Augsburg Films at Minecapolis, Columbus, and Calgary at $12.50.

With $87,000.00 to count, it was comforting to have armed guards standing by. Assisting the women was Mr. N. B. Nelson, treasurer of ALC.

THE PRES DENTS INTEREST GROUP and by Mrs Pater Fossium was popular. When chairs were a falsen some women just set of the floor.

TRINAY NIGHT.

World Missions Night

Dr. Olaf Skinsnes who is the son of miss a number of x in Hong Kong, dared the ALCW to dispense with what called "traditional attitudes" of mission work. Hout three basic errors in (1) imission motives: 2 standing those among w aon we work with our mission mission message.

Dr. Skinsins made it clear that he was not disnataging the need that exists or the honest sincerity of 1 meet this need, or those who support them B that needs attention results from the revolutionary charathat have taken place in recent years and then for our attitudes in missions, and what we can h. If this

Dr Skinsnes said "You cannot truly love until you rests accept as equal, and are willing to learn from the object oxour love."

"When we come to identify our C1 American type of democracy and our type of Pi we sometimes become concerned with concerts rather than with glorifying Co.

Worship Offering

There will be much removing and gratitude to G to the members of the ALC W on each of the L2 ALC helds because the convention offerings have assured that the special needs clisted in detail in the March, 1963 Sexpe will be provided for and additional projects may also be possible.

The offering brought to the convention plus what has been sent to the ALCW Office — is still common totals just over $87,000,000.

CONVENTION REPORT

On Tuesday, April 7, the Fortions Conference Servention of the American Lutheran Gaurch somen was male at Sentral Lutheran Charma, continue. A women from our FLOW attended the convention. Marjerie Forness was our delegate and has prepared this summary of the two addresses given:

The morning adress was given by Miss Alida Storaasli, National Secretary of Education, American Lutheren Church Women.

"Empowered by the Spirit To Do His Will"

The Purpose of the ALC" is the Know and Do the will of our Lord. Keep this purpose in mind always to help you.

Power - - What are we talking about? How do we get it? How ic we do Mis will? Be His sons and daughters. Te have the northwood all of Bod's richos. Read the first three consters of Ephesi as and see all thit God has done for us. If we are readly the sans in acushters of God - we should live like it.

Do you know your relationship to Jod? Be born of Him - it's a living relationship and has been since baptism. Jalk as a me on it we have the Spirit. We see thin a differently when a reason of low iters by its a warmth, there is your as in the sunlight. We have as ween you receive the Holy Sairit? It reveals thin a - shows take a - we see in to see thin a from Jod's point of view. Jod replaces "relf" with Himself; we get a new center. God has to be the rotter. It the love of Jod come into your life. Let Him replace religioness and you will see things differently. By bein faithful in Charca, faithful in charca, for the law if the chings differently. We tower a many take at the law at the continues of the see that the law in the second way to the second since you never leason. He will show you we this will see the composite your next, it then eas all relationaries. If we really love the Lord we will be seening ways to love find and it show our love in servine Him. He are waiting for the lay to realt. Jod and in the meantime are serving Him.

Take time to read the Ford - live in that Ford. Jot a few thou atts from the server to live by for the week - listen for them. Take time for family devotions - time will not come to you.

In First Comintnians 13 we find that love is pitient - new attent re we? Bor many times tid you ask the helphor hair to to be F.L.C. TO times 7? Love is kind and locks for a very of cells constructive. Fut the best construction as everythin. Further me. We would keet them. Love is energial Goldons in size of we. Love to early keep say books - Bod loves us when we have nothing to live. For those we can't like. If we love don't are used to the meanther. Be good witnesses - a non-verbal plance can nurt someone.

By reading the Work we are vitnessing to our children, see lort to the nevil's regime in our dist. The only reason we come to be not the old is to go out and itness. Bod gives us the want to do it and the power to it it. Fruits of love will be notural. He will as the power to to the thin s needed to be dine. He his a name is out our hand; n feet, out our feet. He will a "le work thrush us. Levin the un-lovely - soing the second mile, this is Joi's lave. In can Jod lave through you? Is ded's love our noer than the will form ?

Read Matthew 25 and pender if more perhaps cannot be done by setting out and dring things than doing so ruch sitting in our meetings.

God himself, born in us, is love. Be monest in disagreements - its con' to see our difference. That makes us one in Christ is love. Fray for power that we may be the transcending.

She ended by praying the Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi:
"Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Ferce. There is there, let me son love. There there is injury, parim. There there is 3 abt, faith. There there is despair, hope. There there is a rimess, limit; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Living water, grant that I may not so ruch seek to be a nated is to console; to de understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in givin that we receive, it is in part ning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are form to eternal life."

The afternoon session orened itn a report from the registrar. She reported that those pre ent were two Tautors, 21 Fastor's lives, 1 Mati nal Officer, & District Officers, & Conference Officers, Il Fresidents. 37 Delegates, 189 Members. The total registered was 182, plus 2 Parish Workers

The afternoon address was given by Dr. Donald W. Smith, sh.D. of the Lutheran Family Service of Oregon. He explained that this asympty is a part of the Church. It has responded to the most on hunte of indivi had pers ns. It belon s to the Courch. e nave a consistment to Christ. It makes use of the knowledge, technique on I resignt of the Oth century. This egency is able to be only a fir time of the work that needs to be done. It is spensored by the ALC, LCA and Alsacuri Synos. It exists only because the Church exists. It is the Church's responsibility and the problem of the local con relation to see that this work continues. The need to widen vision and exacted perception in our own church. Ye need to open our eyes and ears.

The offering taken at the convention will be livinel, after excenses are taken out, between the Radio Voice of the Jose of in 'thiopia and the Lutheran Family Service of Oregon.

The District Convention of the North Pacific District of the a C". will re at Facific Lutheran University in June of 1900.

GOD BLESS YOU

Words are often empty things.
We speak and think not of our saying,
But in this phrase forever rings
The Higher tenderness of praying.
It means so Euch—it means that we
Would have No fears or threats distress you,
Nor have your heart timed to a sigh,
Cod blass you!

This trinity of blessed words
Holds all our wishes, oldest, newest,
The fairest deeds that can be wrought,
The halest greetings and the truest,—
Its more than wishing joy and wealth,—
That kindly fortune may caress you,—
That you may have success and health.
God blass you;

God bless you! Why it means so much
We almost whisper as we say it.
We dream that unseen fingers touch
Our hands in answer, as we pray it.
May all it means to all mankind
In all its wondrousness possess you,— Through sun and cloud, through calm and wind-

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

"Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; Gaving thanks for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ" Ephesians 5:19 and 20

Praise and honor and glory be to God for the Blossings we receive as we "come apart" these days on the beautiful Paene Lutheran University Campus for instruction and inspiration. We do truly "make meledy in our hearts to God" and give Him thanks for all the blessings received in the North Paerife District these past three years. Let us pray that we may "be trensformed."

Our Blessings have been many. We welcomed into our fellowship the Lutiaeran Free Church Women—there have been many new Parties and their families who have moved into our Distinct and have been welcomed -we now have grown to twelve Conferences, the Wildiamette Conference dividing and forming the new Central Oregon Conference our membership has grown considerably, not necessarily in Auxiliaries, for many congregations have merged. We have increased in the number of women and Circles.

It has been a privilege and joy for me to have vasited each Conference in convention. It was an added and delightful pleasure to be traveling with Mrs. Peter Fossom to the five Conferences East-of the mountain and with Miss Alida Storansii to the five Conferences West of the mountains. One marvels at the inspiration and devotion of these consecrate leaders. How wonderful it was to have the opportunity to become so we acquainted with them. You cannot be with them long without receiving just a little of their enthusiasm and devotion.

It was a wonderful and rewarding experience to attend the three-General Board meetings and the General Workshops by the ALCW officers and staff—the highlight being the General Triennial Convention in St. Louis

During the three years it was necessary to have three Executive output meetings. It became the day of the president appoint a first vice-president and a second vice-president. Because of these and other reasons we received the resignations of these officers. The other two meetings were for District Convention planning.

There were three District Workshops held for the Conference Presidents and the Sourcetaries of Education and Stewardship

Each day found the mailman at the door and me seated at the typewriter to answer the many letters received from the officers and women

We do have a concern-Stewardship-the Homes in our District are in need of your help. Due to the drop in benevolence income, as much tutions. We need to give and give generously so that they will not need the District Stewardship secretary; she is in close touch with these Homes

Many thanks to all of you for your prayers and support in the work of the District and for the privilege and honor you bestowed upon me when you elected me to serve as your District President. To the memhave always given your help and cooperation whenever called upon to

It has been a wonderful Blessing to me to serve my Lord and Savior Josus Christ and I thank and praise Him for the growth in His grace and

Many "thank you"s too, for the generous hospitality of all the Conference Presidents and to those at whose homes I stayed and to the several Parsonages where I was invited, to the churches, and Auxi iaries who hosted board meetings and workshops. It wouldn't be right for me not to include my husband in the "thank you" too, for it was he who en-

I ask your forgiveness. I thank God for His guidance and wisdom, fer without help from Him we are lost. I thank Him for the knowledge that "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Phillippians 4: 13

And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all operation and the ford fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in ing to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, one ng 1 11. REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF EDUCATION

"Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another."

Dear friends in Christ-this year marks the fifth anniversary of the many blessings these five years. We well remember our constituting convention held here at PLU in 1960. Many of us felt new and strange and sustained us as we have learned to work together. God grant that the ALCW may have a glorious future as we continue to serve the Lord

A review of our ALCW Bible studies reveals that we began by learning to pray together as we studied "When We Pray-How Much More." No work in the Kingdom can be accomplished without prayer. It was good Christ as our Saviour through the studies "Jesus Christ, the Light of the in Him." But we found that in ourselves we were unable to live the Unrisuan ine as we ought. May I remind the conference and local secretaries of education of the importance of the handbooks, the Scope and other literature available. There is much helpful material which can be had from the various Divisions of the ALC. Get acquainted with it. I am happy to know that many are getting the Scope but let us continue to encourage more women to subscribe.

In 1963 we experienced our first general convention in St. Louis, Mo Many of us had the privilege of attending. But in 1966 the general convention is to be held in Portland, Oregon on July 6, 7 and 8. I wish to urge you if at all possible to attend. This is your opportunity to attend a general convention where you will receive a real inspiration and blessing not only through the messages and Bible study but also from meeting the women of the ALCW from all over the United States. Here you will learn to know the strength of the ALCW and experience the joy of being a part of this great army of God.

It is with gratitude to God for the privilege of being your district secretary of education these past five years, that I wish to thank you. My life has been enriched, and I pray that by God's grace that I have been able to contribute something to the ALCW in return. In closing I wish to leave with you Romans 12:1, 2 from which our theme for this conven-

"I appeal to you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world but BE TRANSFORMED by the renewal of your mind, that you may prove what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect."

MARIE C. HESTENES, Education Secretary

REPORT OF THE STEWARDSHIP SECRETARY

As "God's picked representatives be merciful in action, kindly in heart, humble in mind. . . And, above everything else, be truly loving, for love is the golden chain of all the virtues." Colossians 3:12. 14—Phillips

The American Lutheran Church Women in our district have found many ways, too many to name, in which to express their love, from baking cookies for church school—to sewing for people in Africa, from help-are also stressing the need for prayer, visitation, and actually "doing" instead of "talking" For the second year each of our conferences has been assigned a specific mission field to study and help. Each year a different near assigned. We urge our women to study their mission area, pray for specific mission-aries regularly, and remember them with letters and cards. Money can be sent to them; also gifts when they are things which the mission aries years and for ashich thru are sulfiture to pay a duty.

As a district we have a responsibility to Luther Child Center (formerly Parkland Lutheran Children's Home), Seattle Seamen's Center, Lutheran Dible Institute and Pacific Lutheran University. At this time Luther Child Center is particularly in need of financial support. Income non-consider objection of the seament of the considerably. As a result the program and the staff may have to be reduced. This means that some of "these little ones" who are emotionally disturbed will not be able to get the help planned for them. We haven't cared enough! Now is the time to give them help, as individuals and

The ALCW has been asked to help the Parish Education Department with a matter which greatly concerns us, that of enrolling babies in the Nursery Roll. Excellent material including a little nursery newspaper, birt's and an attractive baby book are available. See the brothurs in your pecket.

Are you remembering to use the inspirational devotions in all five we will be a stewardship? When did you last thank God with a gift to your Treasure Chest? CREDO

FOREWORD

Unless stewardship is rooted in clear and sound theological convictions it degenerates into shallow activism and loses its distinctive Christian character. Since our Bible study is doctrinal, following the parts of the Catechism, it seems wise to build our stewardship meditations somewhat around the same material.

The heart of the Christian stewardship idea is not to make people more active but to bring them to a righteousness that comes by faith, and from there to sense the responsibility laid on one by God. The Christian receives a new point of view. He understands his life in a new way, based on the fact that God through Christ has done something to free him from his self-centeredness. One of the aspects of life which this new understanding gives him is precisely the awareness of his stewardship responsibility.

The church is realizing more and more its call to servanthood, and is becoming acutely aware that it must shape its mission around the needs of this broken world. It must be a "sign" of God's purpose to redeem the world.

Out in the world where person meets person in the relationship of industry, administration, government, education, science, peace negotiations, racial tensions, the war on poverty, sex perversion, alcohol and drug addiction—there each of us as a member of the Body of Christ must be a good steward of the abundant grace of God. The Creed is actually a song of praise for it enumerates the wonderful deeds of God. Very likely this is why Luther emphasized in the Catechism that the Christian in his devotions both morning and evening should include the Creed as a song of

Many of us do not know the Nicene Creed from memory so for this year we suggest that we use it daily both as a declaration of faith in the Triune God and as a song of prais

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, By whom all things were made: Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Chost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man; And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried; And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, And ascended into heaven, And sitted on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified. Who spake by the Prophets. And I believe one Holy Christian and Apostolic Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, And the Life of the world to come Amer

THE STEWARDSHIP SYMBOL

The Stewardship Office symbol carries the theme of the total commitment of time (hour glass), abilities (hand), and possessions (coins) in three of the quadrants of the symbol.

The ship in the fourth quadrant is an ancient symbol for the Church. Tying these elements together is the cross, picturing the commitment of our entire being to him who gave himself for us, and uniting our American Lutheran Church congregations in his divine mission of reconcilitation.

MY OFFERINGS FOR ALCW

At every circle meeting and general meeting of The ALCW we have an opportunity to bring an offering. I say opportunity because that is what it is. In fact, every offering connected with the church is an opportunity, for in this act I can give a part of myself for the work of God's kingdom.

My very self has gone into the earning of money—my time, my strength, my ability, my education—the use of all of this comes back to my hands in the form of money. Some of this I have to use for the necessities of life, but a very definite portion of it must go back to God who is the one who has made it possible for me to have money in the first place.

As an ALGW we have some definite objectives for our giving. We have things in our local church we want to do, and we have several things we want to do for others. Some of these needs are present in our community; others in our conference and district; and some in the wider mission of the whole church

On our behalf the general ALCW has set a goal of $1,350,000.00 which we are to give to the total mission of The ALC. A portion of all our offerings goes to this. In this book we can study by ourselves the vast program of work that is the mission of The ALC.

Besides this we have a thankoffering which we place in our treasure chests as we are prompted to special thanksgiving. This gift—when it is received—will go for some work of the church that could not be provided for in the budget.

A point to consider is this: Am I in a rut as far as my giving at circle meetings and general meetings is concerned? It is so easy to give a dollar to every thing that comes along. No one despises a dollar when that represents a true offering, but if it is something we can part with without noticing it, then we can hardly call it a worship offering.

Let this be a year in which we give serious consideration to breaking out of ruts and getting to the point of making every offering a matter of prayer. We will then worship God with our offerings.

THE ALC AND ITS MISSION

With a commission from Jesus himself to bring the good news of telemption to every person. The American Lutheran Church is dedicated to realizing this goal. The ALC, made up of 5,500 congregations including 2,600,000 souls, is involved in a tremendous program of bringing the Gospel to others. Obviously there has to be an organized system of doing it, for it would be utter chaos for each person or each congregation to chart its own program.

Christ has made us his ambassadors. By word and deed we are spokesmen for him. He has given us the sacred trust of proclaiming his truth to others. This is the very foundation of all our transmitten.

Here we are—members of a great church with a great responsibilities effectively. The ALC gives us a plan. It has a mission calling for the stewardship of every member. Nowhere do we become so aware of the mission of the church and our responsibility for the site of the mission of the church and our responsibility for "Thy Kingdom Come," a dramatic presentation given at the convention of the ALC at Columbus, Ohio, "Here is where the people of God assemble to hear the Word, to receive the Sacraments, to be assured of the forgiveness of sins, to sing his praise to be strengthened and to strengthen one another. Here's where the Holy Spirit touches them most richly; here they are changed from people to power filled people, committed, strengthened to follow the olan.

"Those who gather in the congregation Sunday after Sunday are precisely the same people who activate the plan, carry it out, make it work, by the power received as a part of the worship the congregation. The battle carried on by the rason congregations is the same battle, waged against the same enemy, under

The plan for carrying out the mission of the church is called the budget, or schedule of expenditures, a plan that necessitates the prayerful giving of money by every member of the church

In order that we might be more intelligent about our giving to the church, and that we might beet personally related to each piece of work of the church, we are including short sketches on this work according to the Calendar of Gauses. The information is rather sketchy, and we recommend that you dig deeper Each division has promotional material you may have for the asking. Your pastor receives a mailing every month with the newest literature on the work of the church. Read LUTHERAN STANDARD, THE MISSIONARY, SCOPE and other publications of the church to keep informed.

No specific assessment is made on the members of the church for its total mission. Every member should make it a matter of prayerful concern as to the amount he shall return to the Lord, and every congregation determines how much it will give to the outrawh of the church cessful films: t) "Only a Stranger," and 2) in cooperation with the ALCW, "No Time to Wait."

Very fine tracts and folders on the work of evangelism are available at the Evangelism Office, 422 South Fifth Street, Minneapolis.

The Schedule of Expenditures of the church has assigned $518,800.00 to the Commission on Evangelism.

FOR THIS MONTH

- 1. Chart your use of time for a week; make adjustments, and chart again the fourth week.
- Pray for the Commission on Evangelism, for the evangelists of the church, and for evangelism opportunities.
- Practice personal evangelism. Mark some New Testaments to give out.
- Make personal calls on indifferent church members and on the unchurched.

"Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the prophet. I have come not to abolish them but to fulfill them" (Matt. 5, 17)

As a steward of God, what is my responsibility toward the Ten Commandments commonly referred to as the Law² Obviously these are not just ten areas of human behavior about which God has made some rigid regulations.

Recall the diama in the book of Exodus when the Law was given. We remember that when Moses was away on the mountain, the people demanded a visible god and persuaded Aaton to make them one. In his wrath Moses smashed the two tables of stone and made powder out of the golden calf. Then we see Moses praying in anguish for a vision of God, and God's answer was a second "copy" of the Ten Commandments. Through this experience the people of Israel learned that the Law was not a set of tules but was God himself Placed in the Vrk of the Govenant, the Law was moved among the people as a symbol of God's presence. The Law is a picture of God. It speaks of relationship. The people were to practice their faith through the first table of the Law and their obseluence through the second

In the very first commandment, which summarizes the whole Law, God states his concern and love before he makes a demand. "I am the Lord your God. You shall have no other gods before me." The natural man does not want to be dependent on God. Like Adam he belittles, the law, doubts God's goodness and takes his life in his own hands. Yet man needs someone to worship so he invents his own pathetic substitutes and worships at the whrine of wealth, success, popularity, position, etc. Man is so created that when he breaks the law he ruins himself. The Law does not condemn man in order to destroy him, but to drive him to Christ so that he might be restored to sonship with God.

The fact that God says, "I am the Lord your God" shows that the Gospel is at work. He wants to enter into personal fellowship with me even though I am sinful and unworthy. God gave his Son to keep the Law completely, and Christ's obedience and righteousness has been reckoned to me, so that I can stand before God counted as righteous.

My response to God must be one of love which I soon discover I cannot make without the power and help of God. Where there is love there will be acts of love, for it is unthinkable that one who loves would go against the will of the loved one. My stewardship begins with my response to God.

AMERICAN MISSIONS

Over 150 fields have been assigned to the Division of American Missions of The American Lutheran Church, but only a fraction of these can be occupied each year. In 1964 the goal was 80 new missions, but limitations in men and money allowed for only 85 new congregations.

The average cost of a new mission is $100,000,000 in capital funds loaned to the mission and an average of $20,000,00 in a crant or subside.

American Missions has a wide variety of work in addition to starting new congregations: it gives support to inner city churches that are ministering in changing neighborhoods; under Lown and Country it helps communities that are dying an new communities that are getting started; it has specialized work with the American Indian, the Lutheran Church in Mexico Lishum missions, congregations for Americans on foreign soil and it offers assistance to Lutheran congregations in communities of sequent universities.

The sum of $3,023,000,00 is needed annually for American Myssons with an additional $5,83,000,00 necessary in church extension funds.

The church extension fund is a revolving fund which is on loan to more than 500 congregations receiving support. As these congregations repay their loans the funds are reloaned to new congregations.

We can help by giving more to the mission of the church and by participating in Church of the Month Club through which members give a minimum of $1 00 for each of 6 new congregations a year

An aid to keeping informed about the establishment of new congregations is a DoLt-Yourself poster kit provided free by the Division of American Missions. A large map of the United States and provinces of Canada is furnished together with small maps indicating the location of the mission churches started in the last four years. Lists of the congregations started in these years are included. Either the ALCW or some other group could have it as a responsibility to keep this map up-to-date in a place where members of the congregations much see it readily.

FOR THIS MONTE

- Memorize again the Ten Commandments and the explanation of each
- Concentrate on praise and thanksgiving to God for his provision for a Savior who fulfilled the Law
- Pray for the work of American Missions, for those who are coming under the hearing of the Word of God for the first time
- 4. Pray for mission pastors and parish workers
- . Be a home missionary in your own community

"Worthy art thou, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for thou dust create all things, and by thy will they existed and were created" (Res. 111).

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth." These words are so familiar that it is easy in a worship service for me to say them with little or no attention to what they really mean. Now, as I re-examine them in relationship to my understanding of the stewardship life, I see that the primary affirmation of my faith must be this, that I believe that God is God, the Greator and owner of all that exists.

When pretenders rise to challenge God's right to the throne of the universe my faith answers, "Lift up your eyes on high and wee; who created these? . . . the Lord is the everlasting God, the creator of the ends of the earth" (Isaiah 40230-28). "The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein" (Psalm 243). "It is he that made us and we are his" (Psalm 1003). The first lesson that faith must learn is to give glory to God, the Creator and Sustainer of all existence.

Inseparably connected with God's sovereignty is the idea of ownership. God has never sold out his creation to anyone, so he is the owner of all. The evil forces of the world through the master mind of Satan have attempted to take away from God that which is his, and lots of people have been decived, but we know from the World of God that the last-world will be, "... The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever "Rev 1115).

God created material things to be instruments in the hands of men to accomplish God's purpose. When these material things become an end in themselves they are "other gods." . . . A man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions." (Luke 123:15). It is a wretched bargain to exchange the purpose of the lor the means of livelihood. God knows that we have need of material things in the kind of world he created but they are not the most important things. Christian stewardship uses material things to serve the one-true God.

Let me consider seriously: how important are material things in my life? Have they blinded my sense of values so that I think of them as utmost necessities? God help me to use them to serve him.

WORLD MISSIONS

We can be thankful and happy over the world outreach of the ALC. On twelve world fields we have nearly 700 missionaries serving chiefly in educational, evangelistic and medical work. Today there is also need for builders, agriculturists, radio technicians and other specialized workers. Many of these are supplied on a short term basis through World Brotherhood Exchange.

Our overseas churches number over 800,000 baptized members, but there are still 35 million pagans in the areas of our missions. In almost every country the administration of the national church is in the hands of the natives themselves. However, missionaries are more necessary than ever in these new churches for the inexperienced church leaders lean heavily on them. There are urgent needs for buildings and equipment on all fields, needs that have had to be postponed because The ALC total builder has not been mer.

To continue the program that is now going on in all our fields $3,193,000,000 is needed annually. To expand the program an additional $5,5,000,000 is necessary.

We can help by giving more to the mission of the church and devices of all kinds. How few recognize the hand of God in these opportunities, and give him the glory and honor for these accomplishments!

For the Christian these are fresh springs of inspiration and opportunity from God. We must constantly ask God to show us how to use our gifts in the fields of science, in government, in human relations.

HIGHER EDUCATION

The ALC has a very impressive program of higher education: 1 seminary units, 11 senior colleges, 3 junior colleges, 3 academies, and 4 schools of nursing.

In 1963-64 our colleges enrolled over 17,000 students and anticpate 1,000 more students each year until 1970.

For several years the church has asked the congregations for additional funds for added facilities at seminary units and colleges. Dormitories are urgently needed. But only a pittance has been received for this purpose.

For their continuing program the colleges need $2,005,000.00 and for expansion $1,020,000.00. The seminaries need $82,000.00 for their continuing program and $200,000.00 for expansion.

The church also ministers to students attending other than church schools. In this we work through the National Lutheran Council. Division of College and University Work. In 1964 there were 104 full-time pastors and lay workers of the ALC in this work, serving 200,000 youth in 159 different campuses. For this work a total of $861,000.00 is needed including capital funds for student centers.

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself" (Luke 10127).

In these words we find a summary of God's claim upon man's total existence, Love is the motive for responding to that claim, and human relations is the field in which the response is to be made, Jesus gives us a concrete illustration of what he means in the story of the Good Samaritan.

The Samaritan forgot all about the religious difference between himself and the battered stranger lying on the road. The man had need and the Samaritan responded in love with what he had. Love that rises to the occasion so spontaneously and points uself out so unselfishly must have its source in God. It cannot be worked up by itself but must come from an inner spring that has been transformed by the Holy Spirit. We do not know exactly what kept the priest and the Levite from giving help. It may have been fear, or an unwillingness to expose themselves to inconveniences or dangers, or just sheer self-centeredness that would not get involved.

A basic prerequisite of a life of stewardship is the readiness to receive what God has to offer, and an honest willingness to give up the old life. The Galilean fishermen who left everything and followed Christ were ready to do this. The rich young ruler who "went away sorrowful because he had great possessions" was not willing. A wholehearted acceptance of the new life is particularly difficult for one who has acquired wealth

Stewardship begins by receiving God's gift of a new life in Christ, but it doesn't end there. The servants are put in charge of the Master's work (Mark 1934). The talents are given to do business with and are to be returned with interest "As the Father has sent me, even so I send you" (John 20.21). "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven" (Matthew 7.21).

LUTHERAN COOPERATION

The chief areas in which Lutherans work cooperatively are world and American missions, welfare, education and public relations Up to this time the National Lutheran Council and Ganadian Lutheran Council have been the agencies through which cooperative work has been done. Negotiations are under way for a new Lutheran Council which will include most major Lutheran bodies in America.

Started as an emergency measure during World War II. Lutheran World Action has become one of the most significant ongoing efforts of Lutheranism involving not only churches in America but churches in all the world. Lutheran World Action meets needs in 80 countries of the world by offering to hundreds of thousands of people lood, clothing, medicine, and services All this is done in Christ's name regardless of race, circel, or color. Statistics indicate that the Lutheran World vertion dollar distributes you pounds of food while secular agencies report that they distribute 22 pounds of food for a dollar One LWA dime distributes more than 25 pounds of dired milk Mixed with water this amount will provide a output of the milk Mixed with water this amount will provide a output of a known of the Mixed with world provide a cup of milk a day for 4-400 people for 3 months.

In American missions, Lutherans work cooperatively in choosing the location for new congregations, in Town and Country considerations and in urban church planning. The sum of

A portion of every cooperative welfare dollar goes into programs, into welfare, and into ministering to people in federal institutions such as prisons and hospitals.

The campus ministry to Lutheran youth in state institutions is done cooperatively. For student work under the National Lutheran Council $305,000.00 is needed for general operation and $100.000 for capital lunds.

When we speak of Lutheran cooperation, we remember also that we work with Lutherans from all over the world through Lutheran World Federation, and with all Christians through World Council of Churches, Together with other Protestants we support the American and Canadian Bible Societies.

Typical of what is done cooperatively as Lutherans is the ministry through radio, television and the printed media of communication. Between 85-100 television stations carry out children's program called "Light Time" every week, and 35-stations carry the radio program called "Children's Chapel." A weekly news program called "The Church at Work" is carried by 153 stations. Seasonal program for Christmas, Lent and Faster have been heard on as many as 1,000 stations.

The ALC is eager to have representation on committees and councils that sit down to talk about the effective ministry of the Christian Church in the world today.

FOR THIS MONTH

- Pray for opportunities to be a good Samaritan, and for eyes to see the opportunities.
- Pray for the Lutheran Church in all lands, for pastors, for believers, for the unreached, for the relief work done in many countries.
- Pray for Dr. Schiotz, the president of the Lutheran World Federation, for the efforts being made to bring the Gospel in all lands.

"How much more shall the blood of Christ... purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God" (Hebrews 9:14).

"I believe that Jesus Christ . . . is my Lord, who has redeemed me a lost and condemned creature . . . in order-that I might be his own, live under him in his kingdom and serve him in ever lasting righteousness and blessedness. . .

In confessing that I believe in Jesus Christ I accept the fact that I have been redeemed by his death on the cross. In this act he took upon himself my guilt, my inclination to sin, my helplessness to do anything in myself to live righteously. God chose to reconcile the world to himself this way, not because of our goodness of faith, but entirely because he loved us. "God showed his love for us in that while we were yet sinners. Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8). It is through him that loved us that we are more than conquerors (Romans 8:37).

"Love so amazing so divine Demands my soul, my life, my all."

When I say that I believe in Jesus Christ I confess also that I believe he rose from the dead. Everything that the New Test ment says about Jesus comes from the conviction that he is the tisen, living Lord. The same power that raised Jesus from the dead makes the Gospel "the power of God unto salvation." It is to the resurrection that the church owes its existence, its message and its mission. When we pray with Paul that we "may know the passer of his tessimentary with the power of the power of the conference o

In this new life given us by God in which Christ is Lord, we are to be channels through which this life flows to the world.

Do I really believe in Jesus Christ—that he both died and rose again for me? Am I letting him be Lord in my life? If so, I will want to serve him. My stewardship life rests on the fact that Jesus Christ is my Lord, and "no one can say Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit" (I Corinthians 12:3).

YOUTH WORK

Youth activity covers three age groups: junior high (12-14); senior high (15-18); and young adults (19-24). The Luther League is the auxiliary for youth.

In 1964, 56,759 youth attended Bible camps, over 5,000 attended leadership training schools, and 2,224 attended sessions at Holden Village, a retreat center in the Cascade Mountains that trains for eath century discipliship.

That there is a new seriousness of purpose among young people is evident from their participation in the Bible study and activity of their Luther League.

With a limited budget of $406,000.00 the division of youth activities has to look to congregations and youth themselves to assume most of the expenses of the youth program.

Certainly it is important that as a congregation we encourage our youth in their efforts to deepen their own spiritual experience. We may have to respond with financial assistance but just as important, if not more so, is to respond with interest, love, and understanding. If we are walking with sure feet, trusting wholeheartedly and gladly in the Lord, we are going to be an example of faith to those coming after us. By our example we can do a great deal to help young people remain faithful to the Lord of their baptism and confirmation.

They should be encouraged in choice of occupation, to attend college, and helped with summer employment, etc.

Holden Village was a gift to the church by a mining company.

Ample facilities permit families to live together. Activities and classes are conducted for men, women, children and youth: A full summer schedule begins around the 20th of May and continues until Labor Day, with special weeks for special groups. Information on Holden Village may be secured by writing the Youth Office, 422 South Fifth Street, Minneapolis.

FOR THIS MONTH:

- 1. Concentrate on thanksgiving and praise to God for Christ, our Redeemer.
- Memorize again the Second Article with the explanation. Turn it into prayer.
- 3. Pray for the youth of your congregation by name.
- 1. Assist and encourage your youth to attend Bible Camp.

"The Spirit searches everything even the depths of God" (1 Corinthians 2:10b).

What I have confessed in the first and second article of the Creed is possible only because of the work of the Holy Spirit in my heart. It is a function of the Holy Spirit to take of the things of God and give them to us. "I cannot of my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ or come to him, but the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel . . enlightened me . . . sanctified me . . ." Through the Holy Spirit the realities of creation—of God's sovereignty and my responsibility—and the realities of redemption—the forgiveness of sins and the new life in Christ—have become personal realities for me.

Without the active power of the Holy Spirit in my life I could not be a responsible steward. In the sanctification process the Holy Spirit frees me more and more from a self-centered life. He propels me out into the world to bear the burdens of my neighbor, to give my very life to right the wrongs in the world. The Holy Spirit keeps me willing to do the will of God. He makes it possible for me to give as I should give, and to have the right attitude toward my possessions. The Holy Spirit is the only one who can give me courage to act on the conviction that I am on the Lord's errand here on earth. Timidity belongs to the selfish life and the Holy Spirit would free me from that. Romans 9:20-22 tells me that I am a tool in my Master's hands.

The Holy Spirit gives me the power to be a responsible steward out in the world where I live, work and relax. It is there that the "old man" must die daily and the "new man" rise daily. And it is precisely in this place that a steward feels lonely and discouraged for he sees evil engulfing men's minds, rejecting and dishonoring the Lord of life. But at this point I must remember that my Savior went through this in even greater measure, and he comes to my side to comfort me.

As a steward of God I find it necessary to draw on the power of the Holy Spirit for every day's need. When I am obedient to his guidance I find my greatest joy and satisfaction.

PUBLICATIONS

The purpose of a Division of Publications is to bring the Gospel to as many people as possible through the ministry of the printed word. Unlike other divisions, Publications does not receive financial appropriations from the Church.

The Division of Publications is responsible for providing the materials necessary, to assist congregations and pastors in their worship and work, and makes available literature, art and music to enrich the church spiritually and culturally Books on theology. Christian life, work and organization of the church are published every year. In cooperation with the Board of Parish Education it publishes church school curriculum and parish education periodicals. One of the special assignments of the Division of Publications is to publish the official church organ.

The American Lutheran Church owns Augsburg Publishing House located in Minneapolis. Over 300 million pieces of literature are published in a single year. Among these are eight periodicals with a total circulation of more than one million. ALC Sunday Bulletins, curricula materials, books, ecclessastical arts, Bibles and Testaments, music, films and filmstrips. Besides the items that Augsburg offers for sale, they publish the literature and periodicals for the divisions and commissions of the church.

Since most congregations are working on a filmstrip library and make use of many rented films, we want to mention particularly the Augsburg Films catalog which gives a brief description of every item carried. The films are grouped under subject matter to facilitate selection of an appropriate film for a certain

If I am aware of a shallowness in my Christian life and the lack of joy and power in my service I had better take a look at my prayer life. I know that I am tempted to think sometimes that God knows what I need, that he is in control of the world and can do things his way, so why should I pray? What I can easily forget is that prayer is one of the highest privileges a Christian has—the privilege of talking personally with God. He has commanded us to pray. When I don't use this privilege I deny myself one of the great privileges of sonship.

Prayer has two main functions. First, it is God's provision for his children to have direct communion with him toward a growing intimate relationship. In this prayer communion there will be adoration, praise, thanksgiving, confession of sin and petition for daily sustaining of our spiritual life. Jesus demonstrated that he could go without food and sleep and companionship but not without prayer. Second, God has invited us to become partners together with him through prayer in carrying out his will and purpose in the world. This we call intercession. Prayer IS service. God has committed himself to answer—to send it we sak

God has given different gifts to people. Some can respond to his call by giving themselves in person; others can give their money to send the people who are willing to go. But all can pray. The handicapped, the shut-in, the sick and the aged can all be a part of the company of intercessors, and only God knows whose work is the most effective in reaching souls with the Gospel of God's love.

A very practical subject for prayer is the opening of hearts to give more generously of their money for the needs of God's kingdom. With what degree of faithfulness am I using this tremendous gift that God has entrusted to me? Without praver my stewardship life is ineffective.

Prayer can be a form, but it is meant to be a force. No doubt the disciples had been accustomed to praying at definite times of the day, but when they observed Jesus—the time he gave to prayer and the power he received from it—they knew their own prayer life was lacking something. Concerned, they asked Jesus, "Lord teach us to pray." Very simply, Jesus said, "When you pray, say 'Our Father who art in heaven...!"

PARISH EDUCATION

Sunday school, vacation church school, teacher training courses, and confirmation instruction are all such a part of our congregational life that we take them for granted and forget that behind them there is a staff of people working to provide the best in parish education.

The Division of Parish Education provides tools and training for assisting congregations in their teaching ministry. There are 725,000 children in Stunday-school, 80,000 in confirmation classes, 320,000 vacation church school pupils, and 125,000 volunteer teachers, 90,000 are entrolled in adult classes and approximately 75,000 in junior high school classes.

In 1965 new junior high confirmation courses were introduced on the Word, Grace and Faith. The first course in the core curriculum of adult education on family life was also introduced in

This division conducts 240 teacher training institutes every year. Every congregation has opportunity for some of its teachers to avail themselves of this training.

From the schedule of expenditures, $554,000.00 is used by the Division of Parish Education.

We can help by giving to the mission of the church through our regular offerings. Locally we should be assisting as a teacher, or participating in the adult education program. No one ever gets beyond the need for Bible study.

"And he died for all, that those who live might live no longer for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised" (11 Corinthians 5:15).

Christian stewardship is man's grateful and obedient response to God's redeeming love, and is expressed by using all resources that Christ's mission in the world may be fulfilled." I want to learn and understand this definition of stewardship.

At the center of everything is the unchangeable fact of God's redeeming love. What does man do about it? More important, what do I do about it? I have to respond some way: reject, be undifferent, or receive his love.

I stand in awe of the very fact of God's creative work in giving me life and endowing me with many resources, both natural and cultivated. He carries out his creative work continually. But even more amazing is the fact that he has loved me so much that he gave his own Son to redeem my sinful rebellious heart which is by nature filled with self-love and evil of every description.

This is the greatest reality that can come to a person. This is the basic truth that God wants every person in the world to know. No matter what culture, what education, what circumstances surround a human being, God has loved him in a measure none of us can understand. This makes us mighty humble, but should also make us rejoice from the depths of our being because God counted us worth dying for.

With this sinful self-centered nature of mine I cannot even respond in obedience without the help of God. I am overwhelmingly thankful that he gives me faith and power to receive his gift of grace. Knowing such great salvation I want to use every

This is my stewardship life: out of sheer gratitude to respond to God with all that I have and all that I am so that my lamily, my neighbors, my community, the world shall know the Lord Jesus Christ.

Dear Father, I acknowledge that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in thee or even come to thee, but I pray thee o grant me faith to respond to thee with love, Help me to give my whole self to thee in loving service. In Christ's name I prov-

SOCIAL SERVICES

The Division of Social Service, formerly called Charities, serves many welfare needs of people through agencies, institutions and chaplains.

There are nearly 200 agencies and institutions of the church which receive consultation, supervision, certification and finaneral assistance

The $1,180,000,00 allowed by the schedule of expenditures of the ALC for social services is only a fraction of the money needed for these services. Congregations and individuals in all districts give additional amounts for the agencies and institutions in their own states estimated to be about $1,500,000,000.

The ALCW assisted the Division of Social Service in 1005, by providing funds for a youth home in Alaska which is a responsibility of this division.

In many communities our church women have added opportunities to give of their time, their love, their money, and their personal services to people in need. Some of these are in institutions. Many of them are in their own homes. Many of them need companionship, friendship, understanding and love more than anything else.

No ALCW woman should be satisfied until she is involved in reaching into other lives with the compassion and love of

A major portion of the time and effort of the Division of Social Services is spent in the area of service to the aging. About 110 homes for the aging are certified by the church. They receive only token support from the Division of Social Services, but are loyally supported by congregations in the area.

Children's homes are no longer orphans' homes but are centers for loving concern and treatment for children with special needs.

FOR THIS MONTH:

- 1. Review again for memory the Nicene Creed, the Commandments, the Apostle's Creed with the explanation.
- 2. Thank God for your capacities and abilities, and pray to be more willing to use them in service to God.
- Evaluate the whole field of your service to God. Are you doing the best and the most that you can? Pray for

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age" (Marthew 88:10-80).

I believe that God bestows the blessing of salvation in the act of baptism. In his first epistle, Peter speaks quite plainly about the significance of baptism. He emphatically compares baptism with the salvation provided through Noah's ark for the eight survivors of the flood. Just as the waters of the flood brought both death and life, so the water of baptism brings death and life-death for the "old man" and resurrection for the "new man" to a new life in Christ, Dependent on the death and resurrection of Christ, baptism is the starting point of the new life. Those who are born again through baptism are cleansed for a life of patient, brotherly love of Peter 1222, 328-9).

The freedom given in baptism is misused by the baptized persons who live selfish lives. Baptism calls a person to a life of service for others. Luther went so far as to say in his Commentary on Galatians, "That we live on earth is only for this reason to help other people: otherwise it would be best for foot to strangle us and let us die when we were baptized. But he lets us live for this reason that we should bring others to believe even as he has dope for us."

Serving others, consequently, is grounded primarily in baptism. A Christian assumes responsibility in his congregation and community, his nation and the world, not just to be active, but because God has called him through baptism and given him the trust of sharing in his program for the world.

It seems that we should consider baptism more seriously than we do. An injunction is laid on parents who bring a child to baptism that they shall teach that child the Word of God. From his earliest understanding he should be aware that God loves him and has a mission for him to fulfill. He should be reminded over and over again that in baptism God made him his child. As he grows in his sense of responsibility he should be able to observe in all baptized people a glad response to God in the use of their time and all their gifts.

STEWARDSHIP

Since November is the month in which most congregations receive their stewardship commitments for the work of the church, this is the month given to an emphasis on stewardship. Obviously stewardship must be emphasized often during the year so in a way it belongs to the whole calendar, just as the Stewardship office belongs to the whole church.

The Stewardship Office recommends that every local congregation have a stewardship committee on which there is representation from all of the auxiliaries. The chief function of the committee is to plan and execute total stewardship education, and to encourage members to give the funds that are necessary for the total work of the church, local and general. That stewardship education is essential is evident from the fact that one verse in seven in the New Testament deals in some way with the streaggleship of time abilities or possessions.

The ALCW attempts through its literature and practice to educate women to the stewardship life. Such publications as "My Life Is a Stewardship," monthly articles and offering meditations in SCOPE, guides and directions for service projects of all kinds set forth the stewardship of time, talents and treasure.

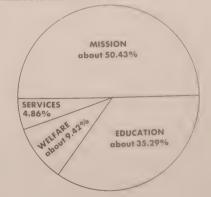

Since the Stewardship Office is charged with the responsibility of encouraging the giving of funds to carry on the immense mission of the church, it has to spend much of its time in the promotion of stewardship of possessions. We do not have to apologice for that because in a sense giving money is the key to effective stewardship. Love of money is one of the greatest factors in keeping us selfish and self-centered.

To some of us the words budget or schedule of expenditures speak only of huge sums of money administered by the church officials at the church office. We fail to see that in this sum of money which is a guide to our spending we find the very existence of the varied program of the church. It represents new mission churches, missionaries to foreign lands, colleges for the youth of the church, works of welfare and love toward the needy. It is tied up with bread and butter, clothes, travel to far away places in obedience to the command of Christ, with church school materials, with homes for senior citizens, treatment centers for disturbed children, brick and cement and everything that goes into this great program.

For this program the church needs approximately $21,300.

The following diagram shows the approximate percentages scheduled for each of four areas of work.

Service to Military Personnel sponsors 125 active ALC chaplains and 347 contact pastors for military bases, and 13 Lutheran service agencies in the United States. There are 41 contact pastors and five service centers overseas. The military chaplains distribute a million pieces of religious literature in a single year. In 1964 a total of 442,185 military personnel and dependents made use of our service centers, a home away from home.

The offices of The American Lutheran Church exist to serve the congregations of The ALC. Not only does every division, commission, and auxiliary need an office from which it can have contact with the local congregations, but the church as a whole has to maintain an office to serve congregations. The treasurer's office, the stewardship office, the president's and secretary's offices are all prepared to make the organizational feature of the church operate smoothly and efficiently.

My purpose as a member of The ALC should be to respond to God with the love of my whole being, using the channels of the church for my most effective work in fulfilling the mission of the church

FOR THIS MONTH:

In year preparations for Christinas concentrate on observing the birthday of Christ. Involve your family in doing things for others in Christ's name.

Report of the Second Triennial Convention Portland, Oregon; July 6-8, 1966

A mimeographed Daily Convention Scope was circulated each day at noon to the nearly 5,000 women at the convention in Portland, Oregon, July 6-8, 1966. This final edition which is a capsule review of the events of the three days, is being sent to all regular Scope subscribers, since the early deadline for Scope magazine makes it impossible to include a report of the General ALCW Convention until the October issue

RUSINESS

A motion that would have enlarged the convention delegation from certain districts in proportion to membership was defeated

A motion that would strike the terms "active" and "inactive members" before the membership designation on triplicate cards was passed

A minor change in the Constitution, Bylaws, Part II, Section 2-1-c was approved to read "Submit budget requests to "The American Lutheran Church through channels."

Henceforth the convention fund will be acquired by (a) auxiliaries of less than 50 members contributing $5 per year, (b) auxiliaries of more than 50 members contributing $10 per year, effective in 1967. Districts will no longer be expected to remit 10% of their receints to the convention fund.

BISHOP HANNS LILJE AND PANEL

Three major presentations on the convention theme were given in challenging addresses by 'Dr Hanns Labe 1 Bishop of Hannover, Germany After each message of reactors probed the subject a little deeper, asks of the Bishop, and added their own comments. The 1 consisted of Mrs. Erling Wold, Grand Forks, N. Dak, M. Geo, Nelson, Minneapolis, Minn.; Dr. Elmo, Agrunson, 1 marck, N. Dak, Dr. Carl Reuss, Minneapolis, Minn., and D. A.-N. Roguess, St. Paul, Minn.

The general topic, Agents of Reconciliation, was considered under the following categories. Reconciliation with Our Fellow Cl. the basis St. Reconciliation with Our Fellow Cl. the basis of church unity); and Reconciliation With O. Fellowing (vital element of world politics).

Additionally, Dr. Lilie addressed a mass meeting on Thuiday evening to which the public was invited - t this meet his subject was "Blessed Challenge to the Chu

Agents of Reconcilation, 'using IT Comithians 1-6-13 where Paul makes our reconciliation to God and our calling to God's agents very clear. Mrs. Streng, who was elected first vice president for the next triennium, opened up this rich portion of Scripture in a remarkable way.

MUSIC

Hymn sings led by Mrs. Rudolph Ramseth, Sacramento Calif., enlivened each session and gave the women a chance to respond to the messages Mrs. Arnold F. Anderson, Port land, Ore., was organist for the entire convention. Mr. Keith Erde, Portland, trumpeter, and a brass quartette added a lift to the singing.

Mrs Milton Nesse, Bremerton, Wash, sang a solo at the worship service, and the Lutheran Choral Association of Port land sang at the Mission Night service

A choral union of ALCW women at the convention, directed by Mrs. Ramseth, sang two anthems at the Thursday night public meeting.

LOVE GIFT

A love gift to the Examplecal Lutheran Church which will become automomous in 1967, was broglory of God at the Mission Night service. The gift for construction of a new theological seminary i has now reached $ 5,000. It is hoped that add being received by mail will swell the fund to the anticipated $100.000.

PLANS PROJECTED

A dramatic sketch written by Mrs. Erling Wold, Grai Forks, N. Dak, was presented on 1. Lay aftermion. Fe was Miss. Dorothy, Morris, Holltwood star who played the lead role in No Time to Wait produced jointly by ALCW the Division of Evangelism, and also written by Mrs. Woild Mrs. Morris was assisted by ALCW members from California and Texas. ALCW staff members were introduced and each reported on the area of her particular concern and projectifuture plans.

CALLED TO BE AGENTS OF RECONCILIATION

Exercine in attendance at the last session of the convention was given a plastic packet containing a study book. Realma of Our Calling by Dr. Howard Grimes and a study-action manual that has questions for study and discussion, helps for the leader, and some supplemental material especially designed to direct ALC women to opportunities in which they can respond to their call to be God's agents of reconciliation.

It was suggested that this material might form the basis for a local study that could involve many women in the miphica tions of the convention messages. This convention theme is so compelling it cannot be dropped at the close of the convention through to stimulate and motivate our entire mem bership in aggressive action wherever they live and work

The study packet, which is entitled "Called to Be Agents of Reconciliation" will help the women who were present to convey some of these ideas to their own groups

Additional packets may be ordered from the ALCW Office, 422 S. Fifth Street, Minneapolis, Minn. 55415, at 50c each

FLCW Will Try Plan of Just 4 Meetings a Year

It was suggested at the recent meeting of the First Lattheran Church Women that the FLCW hold four business meetings a year, in February. April. September and November, plus the Mother's Day tea in May and the annual Christmas party. This was acceptable to members on a one-year basis, hopefully with the end result of a larger turnout at meetings.

Mrs. Ronald Martinson installed the following new officers: Mrs. Oscar Wrausmann, chairman; Mrs. Robert Forness,

Its chief innovation was to combine the egg cup and the saucer into one pice and to lower the center of gravity, thus making it less tippable, and hence less spillable.

Conceding this could be advantageous to people who breakfast in a necktie, I remain depressed by the development.

depressed by the development. H, as the press release asserts, egg cups has persevered in the same basic form for an entire millennium, this is no time to change them. You can immediately see what is certain to happen.

Some competing egg cupmanufacturer will now institute additional change, and the next thing we know the egg cupindustry will be bringing out new models every year, like Detroit.

And who among us with any regard for social status will be found in 1999 using a 1968 egg cup? It's the same old rat race on a new track.

In the face of that prospect, a little yolk on the necktie seems a smal price to pay for egg cup longevity.

'Daisies Tell' Theme of Party

The social rooms of First Lutheran church were transformed into a daisy dell when Joy circle hosted a recent mother-and - daughter tea.

Theme of the event was "Daisies Tell", and the green place mats on white, and bud vases holding yellow and white daisies, yellow candles, daisy covered programs and straw daisy nut cups at each place made a gav and colorful setting for the dessert served to mothers and dauphters.

Mrs. David Ladd, chairman of Joy circle, welcomed the guests and Mrs. Carl Siversen, president of First Lutheran church Women, gave the devotions.

Darsies Tell* was narrated by Mis. F. M. Christensen, with tespinses by several mother-daughter duos. Other numbers were a claimet tree of grisfiom Astoria junior high school, and several numbers is a little grisk chorus, ronging in agest from three to eight, directed by Mes. Ronald Martinsan.

To God and each one of you for this day together in His

To Pastor and Mrs. Dellayme Rey, Mrs. Henry Knox and all the Ladies of Peace Luthbran Church; Mrs. Ralph Kolder and the Ladies of Bethel who assisted in hosting this Convention:

To all of you who have contributed your time and ability to the success of this Convention;

May God be with each of you as we Fress toward the mark in Kingdom Service.

A special Thank you to Rev. Grant, Rev. Schulze and Rev. Brucekner for their message and for being with up today.

My Mother taught me to be true
In all I say and all I de,
Taught me to pray to God each day
For strength to walk the narrow way.

My Mother taught me God is love and that I should Hissgoodness prove, Taught me His guiding hand to hold When I would stray beyond the fold.

5.

My Mother taught me patience sweet

Ej her example in defeat,

She'à simply trust God's loving care

And take all things to Him in prayer.

My Mother taught me so to live
 Unselfishly and of myself give,
 To lighten burdened souls bowed low
 And humbly on my way to go.

5.
God bless my Mother dear, I pray
Watch over her throughout each dayy
And when she's called to Thee above
Dear Lord, reward the one I love.

MY DAUGHTER

(Living For Jesus)

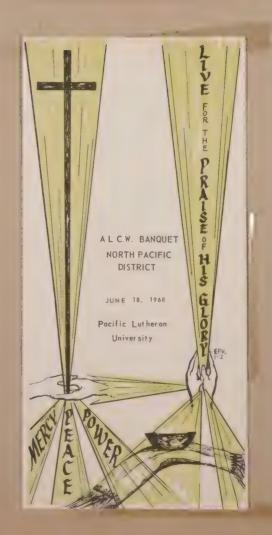

1.
I have a daughter who's looking to me
As an example of what she should be,
I love her dearly & pray I might live
Upright and holy, and right counsel give.
2.
Daughter so thoughtful, my daughter so sweet
Try to be helpful to all that you meet,
Always remember be patient and true,
And God will bless you in all that you do.

My daughter look to Jesus,
Make Him your life long guide,
When pathways seem uncertain,
Your cares in Him confide;
Just trust your life to Jesus
He'll bring you safely through,
God bless you dear,
And never fear,
He's watching over you.

DOXOLOGY

Praise God for Mothers gentle hand, And love we canno's understand, Praise Him who sent us from above. The blessings of a Mother's love.

Praise too, for daughters loving ways, To gladden many of Mother's days, Praise God our Lord and truest friend, Help us to serve Thee to the end.

SING ALONG AT THE BANQUET

AT OUR JUNE CONVENTION (Tune - Donkey Riding)

Were you ever at PLU..
Where we meet the District Crew
You saw me and I saw you..
At our June Convention.

Chorus:

Heigh-ho, here we go.. Programs, speeching, singing, eating.. Heigh-ho, here we go.. At our June Convention.

Were you ever in the dorm.. Where we hope the coffee's warm.. Seeing curlers in the early morn.. At our June Convention. (Chorus)

Did you ever have such fun.. There's no housework to be done.. Only meetings from sun to sun.. At our June Convention. (Chorus)

THE ASH GROVE (Old Welsh Folk Song)

The ash grove, how graceful How plainly 'tis speaking The harp thru its playing has language for me:

Whenever the light thru its branches is breaking,

A host of kind faces is gazing on me; The friends of my childhood again are before me,

Each step wakes a mem'ry as freely I roam:

With soft whispers laden, its leaves rustle o'er me,

The ash grove, the ash grove alone is my home.

My laughter is over, my step loses lightness,

Old countryside measures steal soft on my ear;

I only remember the past and its brightness,

The dear ones I mourn for again gather here.

From out of the shadows their loving looks greet me,

And wistfully searching the leafy green dome

I find other faces fond bending to greet me,

The ash grove, the ash grove alone is my home.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

God bless America, land that I love, Stand beside her and guide her thru the night with a light from above. From the mountains to the prairies. To the oceans white with foam God bless America, my home, sweet, home!

MOUNTAIN VALLEY (Holden Village)

There's a little mining town
You go up and you go down
'Till you get to a mountain valley,
And as soon as you arrive
You begin to feel alive
Up in our mountain valley.

Chorus:

Oh, won't you come with me Be a part of holy glee! Where we can dilly dally And for many miles around Tell of all the joy you've found Here in our mountain valley.

Now the word keeps going 'round About the wonders you have found Living in a mountain valley, And after we've returned We'll remember what we've learned Up in our mountain valley. (Chorus)

THE LEGACY

Will my life leave Love behind? Do my words sound warm and kind? To the many that I greet In my home and on the street Will my life leave Love behind?

Does the Love within me o'erflow To the needy people I know? We can always use a smile As we go that second mile Does the Love within me show?

Will the passing years reveal
That it's only Love that can heal?
We will never live in vain
If we share a loved one's pain
We first learn how to care
If we really want to share
This on-going peace of mind.

Will my life leave Love behind? Will my life leave Love behind?

(TUNE: SHORTNIN' BREAD) If Desired

Fut on the coffee, get out of bed, We are the women who make the church well-fed That isn't all that we can do

That isn't all that we can do We can put on a program or two.

Chorus:

Cur church women love programs-programs Our church women love coffee too Our church women love programs-programs Our church women want to help you.

Three committee members..scratching their heads

Two were smart and the other baked bread.

Sent for the pastor and the pastor said "I think I'll send my wife instead." (Chorus)

They went to the kitchen and they stayed all day,

Forgot about their neighbors and forgot to pray

Now this is the thing we ought to do..
Find women that can cook and read the Bible too. (Chorus)

Well we caught them with the coffee. We caught them with the stew. But we didn't catch anyone praying for you.

Now the world is awaiting and it's plain to see.

I want to be in a church that's praying for me. (Chorus)

BE THOU MY VISION

Be Thou my Vision, O Lord of my heart Naught be all else to me, save that Thou art

Thou my best thought, by day or by night,

Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my Wisdom, and Thou my true Word

I ever with Thee and Thou with me, Lord Thou my great Father, I thy true son Thou in me dwelling, and I with Thee one.

Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise Thou mine inheritance, now and always Thou and Thou only, first in my heart High King of heaven, my treasure Thou art.

Memories, memories, dream of love so true..

O'er the sea of memory I'm drifting back to you.

Childhood days, wildwood days Among the birds and bees..

You left me alone but still you're my own - in my beautiful memories.

GLADNESS IS THE GAME (Ekstrand-Landsverk)

A is for anemone, B is for bell, C's for simple cinnamon And sometimes carousel.. All of life is holy, all of life is good Blessed is the reader Who reads it like he should.

Chorus:

Each one - teach one,
Tell it like it is,
God is waiting in the wings,
Tell it till tomorrow sings.
Each one - teach one,
Gladness Is The Game. (Repeat)

J is for Jerusalem, Blood upon the stones, W's for weariness Crying in my bones. Still sing Jubilate to The Word that came, Love is the absolute and Gladness Is The Game.

Assisting Mrs. Swensen in the coming year will be vfce-president, Mrs. Andrew Nygaard; secretary, Mrs. Richard Siekerka; treasurer, Grace Johnson; Education secretary, Ned ra Christensen; and stewardship chairman, Pat Erickson.

Highlight of the meeting was a playlet on stewardship with characters in the story played by Betty Whitten, Margaret Nielsen and Jennie Kelm. Mrs. Jerry McCallister led devotions and Mrs. Christensen spoke on the history of two famous hymns. In keeping with the special Thanksgiving offering was the number "Now Thank We All Our tood" by a female quar-

ine young women of Joy circie have completed six entire layettes to be sent to Lutheran

World relief.

Mrs. Frank Heiner is new president of Hope circle, Mrs. Elmer Forseth is secretary treasurer and Mrs. Allan Ahola is vice - president.

The psalms studied by Charity circle were illustrated by slides with narration shown by Mrs. John Holmstedt for that group recently, Members donated funds to supplement the Luther Leaguers expenses to their convention in Portland.

In an impressive candle-light service at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Martinson, Mrs. Walter Kelm installed the new officers of Fath circle who are: president, Mrs. John Van Oxdol; vice - president, Mrs. Erling Orwick; secretary, Mrs. Charles Berry; treasurer, Mrs. Margaret Lervick: education secretary, Mrs. Bill Olsen; stewardship secretary, Mrs. Albert Luukinen. Mrs. Andrew Nygaard led the study lesson.

A highlight of the year of all women's groups of First Luir eran will be the annual Christmas party in the church social rooms Drecember 3 at 7:30 p.m. hosted by Faith circle Mrs. Charles Berry is chairman of the vent

Lutheran Women Gather Around Christmas Tree

Caroling, with hands linked and circling the Christmas trein the center of the room, the women of First Lutheran church celebrated in Scandanavian custom at the annual Christmas party for all the feminine members of their congregation and their friends. Faith Circle members were hostesses at the program and party, a popular Christmas event.

Mrs. Eric Hauke welcomed the guests and Mrs. Ed Hansen, program chairman, introduced Miss Marcia Moberg and Miss Sharon Burkhart who played a flute duet. Two solos were sung by Mrs. Demis Thomassen. The Christmas gospel was read by Mrs. Bill Olsen, and Miss Helen Luukinen offered a reading. Mrs. F. Ames completed the program singing two traditional Christmas songs.

Desserts, cookies, punch and coffee were served to the women of all ages, attending from a table covered with a dark green lace cloth and decorated with red caucies and boughs. The punch table was decorated with punc, how a red come. A solver offering for the Laurer Child Welfare center at Everett.

Wash., was taken.

The Christmas program of Hope circle, held at the Home of Mrs. Bjarne Thomassen, was the scene of the installation of new officers. Mrs. Ronald Martinson acted as installing officer. Not only did circle members have a gift exchange for one another, but they also brought gifts for area nursing home pat-

New officers have been elected by Bereans circle. Mrs. John Holmstedt will serve as chairman; Mrs. Oscar Wrausman, secretary; and Miss Margaret Nielsen, treasurer. At their recent meeting they took offerings for residents of the Hillcrest School for Girls and for the Lutheran Bible institute of Seattle. Joy circle, mostly comprised of mothers of young children, met at the home of Mrs. Ronsald Martinson, where they brought new toys for the church nursery. Circle members are delighted to have Job Corps women for baby sitting during (their meeting time. The Corps Women donate two hours a month to this circle as a community service.

Charity Circle's Christmas party was a pottuck luncheon held in the church dining room December 19.

ALC Women in Mission

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

This is an auxiliary of the women of The American Lutheran Church that bands the women of the church together for fellowship, growth, and service, It is composed of all women who are members of our church. It is the local branch of the American Lutheran Church Women.

The purpose, as stated in the constitution, is TO KNOW AND DO THE WILL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST BY:

inspiring in the individual member a deeper consecration to our Savior,

developing stewardship of time, talents, and treasure,

disseminating knowledge of the program of the church of Jesus Christ, particularly of The American Lutheran Church,

spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

This organization meets the first Tuesday evening of each month (with the exception of July and August) in the church. All women of the church, whether they belong to Circles or not, are urged to attend.

A workday will be held on the fourth Tuesda; of the month (except in July, August, and September) to sew for the missions and for Lutheran World Relief.

This land is your land!
This land is my land!
From California
To the New York Island.
From the Redwood forest
To the Gulf Stream water
This land was made for you and me.

As I was walking
That ribbon of highway
I saw above me
That endless skyway.
I saw below me
That golden valley
This land was made for you and me.
(Repeat above)

5.

You're a grand old flag;
You're a high flying flag;
And forever, in peace, may you wave.
You're the emblem of the land I love
The home of the free and the brave.
Every heart beats true
Under red, white and blue;
Where there's never a boast or brag.
But, should auld acquaintance be forgot
Keep your eye on the grand old flag.

In the evening by the moonlight
You could hear those voices singing,
In the evening by the moonlight
You could hear those banjos ringing.
How the old folks would enjoy it
They would sit all night and listen
As we sang, in the evening by the moonlight.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

This is an auxiliary of the women of The American Lutheran Church that bands the women of the church together for fellowship, growth, and service. It is composed of all women who are members of our church. It is the local branch of the American Lutheran Church Women.

The purpose, as stated in the constitution, is TO KNOW AND DO THE WILL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST BY:

inspiring in the individual member a deeper consecration to our Savior,

developing stewardship of time, talents, and treasure.

disseminating knowledge of the program of the church of Jesus Christ, particularly of The American Lutheran Church,

spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout

This organization meets the first Tuesday evening of each mouth (with the exception of July and August) in the church. All women of the church, whether they belong to Circles or not, are urged to attend.

A workday will be held on the fourth Tuesday of the month (except in July, August, and November) to sew for the missions and for Lutheran World Relief.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

This is an auxiliary of the women of The American Lutheran Church that bands the women of the church together for fellowship, growth and for service. It is composed of all workn who are members of our church. It is the local branch of the Amererican Lutheran Church.

The purpose, as stated in the constitution, is TO KNOW AND DO THE WILL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST BY:

inspiring in the individual member a deeper consecration to our Savior,

developing stewardship of time, talents and treasure,

disseminating knowledge of the program of the church of Jesus Christ, particularly of The American Lutheran Church,

spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

This organization meets the first Tuesday evening of each month (with the exception of July and August) in the church. All women of the church, whether they belong to Circles or not, are urged to attend.

A work day will be held on the fourth Tuesday of the month (except in July, August, November) to sew for the missions and for Lutheran World Relief.

SONICS

 Are you Hungry? Yes I am! Yes I am! From the kitchen clatter There'll be a full platter Of good food, Of good food.

 Put your hand in the hand of the Man who stilled the water, Put your hand in the hand of the Man who calmed the sea. Take a look at yourself and you can look at others differently By putting your hand in the hand of the Man from Galilee. Put on the coffee, get out of bed,
 We are the women who make the church well fed.
 That isn't all that we can do- We can put on a program or two.

Chorus:

Our church women love programs, programs Our church women love coffee too Our church women love programs, programs Our church women want to help you.

Three committee members--scratching their heads--Two were smart and the other baked bread. Sent for the Pastor and the Pastor said, "I think I'll send my Wife instead."

They went to the kitchen and they stayed all day Forgot about their neighbors and forgot to pray. Now this is the thing we ought to do-Find women that can cook and read the Bible too.

Chorus

Well we caught them with the coffee
We caught them with the stew
But we didn't catch anyone praying for you.
Now the World is awaiting and it's plain to see
I want to be in a church that's praying for me.

Chorus

3. He's Got the Whole World

Be's got the whole world in His hands...

te's got the wind and the rain in His hands...

He's got you and me, brother, in His hands...

5. WE ARE ONE IN THE SPIRIT

We are one in the Spirit,
We are one in the Lord.
We are one in the Spirit,
Ue are one in the Lord,
And we pray that all unity may one day be restored.

CHORUS

We will walk with each other,
We will walk hand in hand,
We will walk with each other
We will walk hand in hand
And together we'll spread the news that God is in our land.

CHORUS

We will work with each other We will work side by side, We will work with each other And we'll guard each man's dignity and save each man's pride.

CHOFUS

All praise to the Father
From whom all things come,
And all praise to Christ Jesus
His only Son
And all praise to the Spirit,
who makes us one.

HORIIS .

And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love,
Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

6. PARTNERS! PARTNERS! PARTNERS FOR GOD!

We are partners for God,
We are servants of God
As we live and sing his praises.
We are partners for God,
While together we work,
Sharing God's great plan to save us.

We are partners for God,
When his arms we extend
As we touch the lives of people.
We are partners for God
When his name we defend,
When the world rebukes and shames him.

We are partners for God,
As we spread out his light
To the darkened world around us.
We are partners for God,
When we joyfully claim
Christ has died to save and free us.

4. HOW MANY TELEPHONE CALLS RAVE BEEN MADE?

How many telephone calls have been made To make my trip here come true? Yes. 'n how many dresses were packed in a bag When only a couple would do? Yes. 'n, how many trib.

Yes, 'n, how many things were forgotten behind

Alas, I'm afraid quite a few!
The answer, my friend, is making a list,
The answer is making a list.

How many hairpins pinned in my hair Before my curls stay in place? Yes, 'n how many brush strokes brushed through my hair

To keep it out of my face?
Yes, 'n how many blasts at spray from a can?
I'm afraid I'm losing the race!
The answer my friend, is puttin' on a wig,
The answer is puttin' on a wig.

How many calories have I put down Since bidding my home-town "goodbye ? Yes, 'n how many zippers will refuse to zip Till my room mate gives it a try? Yes, 'n how many cookies will pass through

Plus how many pieces of pie?
The answer, my friend, is going on a diet,
The answer is going on a diet.

How many wonderful friends will I make While studying God's holy Word? Yes, 'n how many times will I whisper a prayer Of thankfulness unto my Lord? Yes, 'n how many messages straight to my heart Will cause my spirit to soar? The answer my friend, 'We're Partners for God', The answer, 'We're Partner for Cod'.

OFFERING MEDITATION FOR DISTRICT CONVENTION Written by Jeanne Jensen

LEADER: We lift our hearts to you in a partnership of praise and thanksgiving, 0 heavenly Father.

PEOPLE: How great is your love, O God! Your mercy is everlasting!

LEADER: We bring to your remembrance, Lord, all who are involved in the ministry of our church to the American Indian, Eskimo, and Mexican peoples, and in the inner city and town and country ministries.

Bless all Indians who minister to their people and grant to all others who are engaged in the ministry to the Indian, the forgotten American, deep insight into this people's particular problems and needs, and a sensitivity to the programs that the Indian proposes to best meet his needs.

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer, O Lord.

LEAPER: Grant patience and understanding to the pastors, social workers and other staff who minister to and coursel with the Eskimo in his attempt to adapt to rapid social change and a foreign culture.

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer, O Lord.

LEADER: We pray for the ALC Mexico Mission program, for the continued life and growth of the Moxican Lutheran Church and its individual congregations, and for Augsburg Seminary, Mexico City, its professors and instructors; undergird this church as it struggles to maturity and attempts to provide a strong evangelical ministry to Mexican people who have no active church membership.

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer, O Lord.

LEADER: We pray for the ministry of the inner city churches which, faced with shrinking member-ship, are neverthcless attempting to minister to their changing neighborhoods. Grant them courage to device new methods of ministry to reach more effectively people of vaving medical cultural and economic backgrounds; call forth more pastors to be trained to minister

Offering Meditation Continued: to the Trustrations of inner city people: and give quidence to those in responsible posttions as they continue inter-Lutheran and inter-denominational planning to avoid overlapping ministries.

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer, O Lord.

LEADER: We pray for the ministry in rural churches which, faced with shrinking membership, must find ways to act together with other Lutherans, other Christians, to develop area ministries grant to all participating in this work an openness to new ideas for an imaginative ministry and the courage to believe that the Holy Spirit can lead them into new and exciting situations.

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer, O Lord.

LEADER: To all personnel who plan and carry out the work of these five special ministries, who need encouragement to intensify their involvement and wisdom to work more effectively in their specific areas. PEOPLE: Grant these blessings, Lord.

LEADER: For the partnership we have with you and with each other in this particular way of extending your kingdom.

FEOPLE: We give you thanks, O Lord.

LEADER To our responsibility to support this work through prayer, liberal giving to the general program of the ALC, and through special gifts such as this offering.

PEOPLE: Challenge us, O Lord.

LEADER: Accept this offering now as a token of our responsibility; we give it joyfully, for we know that in this act we are affirming our partnership with you in the building of your kingdom.

PEOPLE: Bless this offering that it might multiply in its usefulness and do nore than we ask or think. In Jesus' name. Amen.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

This is an auxiliary of the women of The American Lutheran Church that bands the women of the church together for fellowship, growth and for service. It is composed of all women who are members of our church. It is the local branch of The American Lutheran Church.

The purpose, as stated in the constitution, is TO KNOW AND DO THE WILL OF OUR LORD JECUS CHRIST TY:

inspiring in the individual member a deeper consecration to our Savior,

developing stewardship of time, talents and treasure,

disseminating knowledge of the program of the church of Jesus Christ, particularly of The American Lutheran Church,

spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

This organization meets the first Tuesday evaning of each month (with the exception of July and August) in the church. All women of the church, whether they belong to Circles or not, are urged to attend.

A work day will be held on the fourth Tuesday of the month (except Juiy, August, November) to sew for the missions and for the Lutheran World Relief.

TABLE PRAYER

(Use tune of EDELWEISS, from The Sound of Music)

Bless this house, Eless our food, Come, O Lord and sit with us. May our hearts glow with peace, Come with your love to surround us.

Friendship and love, may they bloom and grow, Bloom and grow forever, Bless our friends, Diess our food, Bless all mankind forever. WE'RE HERE FOR FUN
(Auld Land Syne)

We're here for fun right from the star-So drop your dignity. Just Laugh and sing with all your heart And show your loyalty. May all your troubles be forgot Let this night be the best; Join in the songs we sing tonight, Be happy with the rest!

2.

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT (Tune: Reuben, Reuben)

Tall:
We are ling and tall and skinny
Lank and thin, we will admit.
But our appetite is perfect
We are always feeling fit.

Short:
We are short and stout and rugged
And our stature may be wide,
But with it we are contented,
We accept our size with pride.

Tall: We would not be like some people Short, condensed, a sorry plight. With spike heels and high poke bonnets Helping elevate their height.

Shbrt:
We are not a bit peculiar,
We are chic and tres petite.
No one ever could mistake us
For a lamp post on the street.

All:
Short or tall, we should be thinking
How successful we will be.
If we push and pull together
I'll help you and you help me.
Let us bring cooperation
In our groups both far and wide,
And with our concerted action
Serve our Lord with joy and pride.

MOTHERS - DAUGHTERS (School Days)

Mothers, liothers, dear and patient Mothers,

Washing and sewing and cookery
Taught with disaster and misery.
What would we do without you, dears?
You, who would wipe away our tears.
We want you to know we love you so
As older and dearer you grow.

Duaghters, Daughters, dear devoted daughters.
Thank you for loving us, even thoughters sometimes we've misunderstood you?
We have expected you to be Sugar and Spice; but now we see Little angels in Heaven, you alway. can't be.
But we're proud of you, daughters

MY MOTHER
(O Master Let Me Walk With)

My Mother taught me to be true
In all I say and all I do.
Taught me to pray to God each day
For strength to walk the narrow way.

My Mother taught me God is love And that I should His goodness

Taught me His guiding hand to hold When I would stray beyond the fold.

My Mother taught me patience sweet By her example in defeat, She'd simply trust God's loving care And take all things to Him in prayer.

My Mother taught me so to live Unselfishly and of myself give, To lighten burdened souls bowed low And humbly on my way to go.

Consecration

The joyful privilege of dedicating a "House Unto The Lord" is ours today, and as a congregation, we are thankful to Him, who through the years, has thus blessed our collective congregational effort and brought us all into this hour. To His name be the honor and the glory.

But as the people of God in all the generations before us, have joyfully consecrated their temples to the service of the living God, they have ever been alerted to the need of self-dedication to the things of Him, and those things which belong to their "peace."

Men have ever enjoyed the marvelous faculty of fashioning the shapeless building forms of nature, such as wood, steel and stone, into beautiful edifices of worship, but having done this, they can do no more, because life and spirit cannot be transmitted into these forms

It is rather for the people of God, who, through Christ Jesus, have been made unto Him "living stones" in the great temple of our God—they alone can give life, meaning and form to the temples of worship thus erected and consecrated to the honor and glory of Him who ruleth over all.

Today, as we embrace this joyful opportunity of dedicating μ ur house of worship to the service of our God, may this occasion also be unto us a call for further self-dedication to the things of our Redeeming Lord, the Word and the Sacraments and to the Church which has been purchased with so great a price.

This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. Psalm 118;24.

The corner site on 33rd and Grand, on which our new building is located, is a plot of ground measuring approximately 90 by 220 feet.

Built in traditional design, with modern applications, the structure is 101 feet long, with an average width of 40 feet and contains nearly 9000 square feet of usable floor space.

On the main floor is located the chancel, sanctuary, an assembly room, the northex and a church office. These areas are all finished in combinations of oak and birch panels. Four Sunday school rooms are located on this floor.

In the balcony sections of the building, three Sunday school rooms, an organ sound chamber and a mother's room have been incorporated.

The basement sections contain two assembly rooms, a stage, a fully equipped kitchen, four Sunday school rooms, a store room, boiler room and two rest rooms. The Sunday school sections of the building are finished in combinations of gumwood and birch.

The building is heated by a fully automatic four sectional hot water system.

The electrical, public address system and light fixtures are of the most modern design.

The chancel furniture, the altar, baptismal font, pulpit and lectern is finished in mahogany. The pews, the new Baldwin organ and Hamilton piano is finished in matching oak. Included also in the equipment is 160 new Samson upholstered folding chairs and miscellaneous other items.

With the exception of an unfinished painted exterior, final color to be determined, we are happy to present for dedication a virtually completed and fully equipped church.

Acknowledgements

On this day of dedication, we wish to make the following congregational acknowledgments.

Our sincerest appreciation is extended to Eino Isaacson, Asturia architect, who assisted the congregation so greatly in the over-all planning of the new church building

Our congregation's gratitude is extended to the contracting firm of Albert Duoos and Son, who completed the rough framing of our building.

A special word of real appreciation and gratitude is extended to Albert Mittet, Astoria building contractor who so wonderfully made available to the congregation his building talents and supervision, on both exterior and interior phases of our new church building. From the furnature of the church chanced to the stairway leading to the balcony, everywhere, are the evidences of his superb workmanship and we are indeed grateful to him for his fine work and conservation.

We wish also to thank all of the Astoria firms and building supply houses through whom the congregation has dealt through its building operations. Some of these firms have given outright gifts of a substantial nature to the church, others have favored us with fine discounts in the purchase of building materials. For these considerations we are deeply grateful.

Within the congregation itself our sincerest thanks is extended to all those who have given encreously into the building found of the church. While in this connection we think primarily of the many fine monetary gifts, yet we are also mindful of the many fine and helpful cifts which have been given in the form of huilding materials.

We are deeply appreciative of the gifts which our church organizations have given in the overall aspects of our building program.

Our thankful acknowledgment is extended for the fine gift of the Baldwin organ and the Hamilton piano which has added so much to equipment of the church, and also to all those individuals who have sponsured the cost of the new church pews.

Our final word of sincerest acknowledgment is to that small army of congregational workers, who from the very beginning of our building operations; have contributed so abundantly of their time and labor, toward the erection of our new building. Thousands of hours have been generously given and thousands of dollars have thus been saved in building costs by those who were willing to lean "as unto the Lord" the talents of their minds and hands. This, throughout our building postations, it has ever been one of the fine aspects of it. The Lord bless the work of all those who have thus tabored.

Bistorical sketch

Our church in Astoria was first established in 1876 by the Reverend Emil Christenson who had been sent out west by the Norwegian Lutheran Symod of America to help develop the Lutheran Church on the coast. The Scandinavian Evangeical Lutheran congressions was organized on January 27, 1877 and services were held first in the Episcopal Chapel, located on the upper side of Grand Avenue between Thirty-first and Thirty-third Streets, then in a school house on Thirty-fourth and later with the Swedish people in their building on Franklin. After a few years this congression was terminated.

On October 2, 1884 the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran congregation was incorporated and this body, later known as the Norwegian Lutheran and at present as the First Lutheran, has been in continuous existence since then

During these early years the church was served by a number of pastors and met in various temporary quarters. Property was required on 29th and Grand Arcenne in 1885 and on May 8, 1892, the new church was first used, It was only a small chapel, built where the parsonage now stands, but later it was moved and enlarged A parsonage was then built.

Now, the church grew under the able leadership of its pastors. Its Ladies Aid is the oldest on the Pacific Coast in our Synod. Other organizations were developed and contributed in carrying out the Lord's work

Finally, this building was too small and old for the growing congregation and in 1945 the first flaw were given for a new church. In 1951 the actual building was begun and the cornerstone was laid on January 25, 1952. Services have been held in our new location since Palm Sunday of 1954

We rejoice that we are now ready to dedicate our new home of worship to the continual service of our Lord and Saviour

Rev. Ronald D. Martinson PASTOR

Most of us will spend the next few days eating leftevers from our Thanksgiving Day dinner. We will have turkey sandwiches, turkey soup, turkey on rice, and turkey in this and turkey in that. There will be other food too which is left-over and is too good to throw away. I need not go on any further to make this point because you have all been through it and you know exactly what I mean. But what if there weren't any left-overs? Think of what we would be missing! What if you had eaten up everything yesterday so that nothing was left-over; then what? Suppose that when you had finished eating yesterday someone had informed you that all the food was gone and there never would be anything more for you to eat? These are only hypothetical questions and these things, more than likely, will never happen.

If this is titue, if there is always something left-over and there is always something on the table for the next meal, then it follows that the "thanksgiving" of yesterday ought to have some left-overs too. No sooner have we given tranks to God than we have something else for which to be thankful. I am positive that none of us did such a thorough job of thanking God on Thanksgiving Day, that there isn't something left-over for which we can give thanks today. God's goodness toward us always has its left-overs. There never has been a time and never will be, when we will hear God say, "I am sorry but there is nothing lett. God's goodness endures forever. The Psalmist in Psalm 106, verse 1, reminds us, "O give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; for His steadfast love endures for ever!" As long as we live there will be something from God for which we can give thanks.

Our cupboards often grow bare like "Old Mother Hubbard's" cupboard. Unless we put some things on the shelf we soon find that they are bare. Not so with God's "eternal cupboard." It is always full of food. clothing, love, grace, mercy, forgiveness and salvation. You can come to God and receive provisions not only for your physical needs but also for your spiritual needs. The shelves are always full. No, God does not have little elves to fill them up as soon as someone takes something from the saelf. God in His divine wisdom has created this world and by His divine providence continues to sustain it with gifts necessary for life. Through the life, death, and resurrection of His only Son, Jesus Christ, He has stocked the shelves of forgiveness so deep that we can come in repentance daily and not even diminish the supply.

You have thanksgiving dinner left-overs and God has goodness left-over. The question we face today, tomorrow and each day thereafter is, "Do I have some thanksgiving left-over?"

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, FAITH CIRCLE

'Twas on a night in '22 A group of girls did meet. To form a Guild to help the church For this, there was a need.

It was decided then and there, "Girls Guild" would be the name - - - Of this new group and Service be their aim.

As all new ventur es starting out Some rules would guarantee Smooth running ope rations, All this they did forsee.

The age to start would be sixteen But age forty was the end. That was the time they said, "Adieu" And to Ladies Aid did send.

At forty, one of course, was old, No more should be a member -One was reminded, "Two years left," Or "One" or "Three", remember?

And dues would be ten cents a meet, And the treasurer would count The meetings missed, or not paid for, And how those things did mount!

Especially in depression years when just ten cents would buy A loaf of bread, or nice soup bone or a piece of fish to fry.

But back again to early years When Guild had just begun, The girls would bring their sewing And sing in unison. They sewed endless towels and potholders They were so popular And pancushions and luncheon sets To be sold at the Bazaar.

The young boys came to see their dates And leaders sa id they'd block Their coming at all, if after this They came before 10 o'clock'

When 10 o'clock rolled around They'd come in and take a seat, They'd spy their dates, sit down and talk -And say' Could those boys eat'

But now the tides reversed itself, The girls can barely creep They totter to the windows and through the curtains peep.

And then they slowly go to the door And open it with care. And holler in a creaky voice, "Say' Any men out there?"

Now Senior Guild is Faith Circle -Boasts many chrter members, The years have s ped so quickly But each of them remembers. "How Ya Feeling? I'm fine"

There's nothing the matter with me.

I'm just as healthy as can be.

I have arthritis in both my knees.

And when I talk I talk with a wheeze.

My pulse is weak, and my blood is thin.

But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

Arch supports I have for my feet,

Or I wouldnt be able to be on the street.

Sleep is denied me night after night,

And every morning I look A sight.

My memory is failing, my heads in a spin,

I'm practically living on asperin.

But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

The moral of this tale we unfold,

That for you and me we are growing old.

It'sbetter to say, I'm fine with a grin,

Then to let them know th real shape we'r ine.
